JBI Systematic Review Title Registration Form

Title: Ethical conflicts experienced by nurse managers: scoping review

Centre: The Brazilian Centre for Evidence-based Healthcare: A JBI Centre of Excellence

Primary Reviewer

Name: Luciane Hupalo da Silva Email: lhupalo@usp.br

Question: What are the ethical conflicts experienced by nurse managers?

PICO

Population: They will be the nurse managers (managers, supervisors, coordinators, foremen, chiefs) who are responsible for managerial activities and decision makers.

Intervention: Phenomena of interest (qualitative)

The concept of interest is "Ethical Conflicts". Ethical conflict in nursing involves emotional responses to morally challenging situations related to incompatible values and competing interests among different stakeholders, as well as ambiguous obligations in nursing practice.

Comparator: No comparator (qualitative review)

None.

Outcome: Context (qualitative)

All settings of health care services and systems.

Please download, fill in, save and email this form to: jbisynthesis@adelaide.edu.au